SOCIAL TULSA ENJOYS ITSELF

WHILE YOUNGER FOLKS MOURN, OLDER ONES MERRY AT HALLOWEEN.

STIR WAS STARTED EARLY

Country Club Dance, a la Rural Garb, Largest Event of Night—Scores of Smaller Affairs.

While the small boy and girl mourned the stroke of fate that deprived them of the pleasure of stealing gates and performing other pranks which for decades have been the privilege of young America on the night of October 31st, by reason of a strict quarantine, Tulsa society revelled in the delights and mysteries of Halloween.

Society shone brightly last night, and probably never before in Tulsa has such a galaxy of social entertainments been arranged for any one night. Among the principal social functions held were the old-fashioned dinner and dance at the Country club, the dance at the Elks' club, the masquerade party at Kendall college, the 'hobo social' given by the Epworth league, social functions at nearly every church in the city, and many entertainments and parties at private homes.

Spirit Manifested for a Week.
For a week the spirit of "hobgoblin night" has been in evidence at the various social affairs, and the different clubs and societies followed out the Halloween idea to the minute.

Social Tulsa was astir early last night, and before 9 o'clock carriages and automobiles were at a premium. In many ways, Tulsa spent a remarkable Halloween, principally so because of the absence of mobs of youngsters parading the streets in garbed costumes in search of mischief, which privilege on this one night of the year they are allowed with little interruption.

Country Club Danced.
The Country "club dancz" and dinner at the Country club last evening, was without exception one of the most delightful affairs of the kind ever given in Oklahoma. About 125 Tulsa society people, dressed in the height of "fardom" dined and danced until the wee small hours of the night.
There were just 170 country folks seated around the "festly board"—on which was to be found everything that real prosperous farmers would serve, including pumpkin pie.

The dance was participated in by sixty couples, mostly country squires, their wives, and children and children's sweethearts, judging from their looks.

Mrs. W. Lyle Dickey carried off the prize for being the most "beautifully dressed person present."

The Elks celebrated Halloween with a dance at their hall which was attended by about twenty couples.

M. W. A. and R. N. A. Join Festivities.
The Modern Woodman of America, with Glenn and Pocahontas camps of the R. N. of A. as their guests, celebrated Halloween in royal fashion last evening.

The R. N. of A., about 100 strong, appeared at Woodman hall wrapped in sheets and wearing masks, but there was one "black sheep" among their number, who being dressed in black and wearing bloomers was neither recognized as a member of the Royal Neighbors of America nor of the M. W. A. and was compelled to "ride the goat."

The R. N.'s, as a surprise for their hosts, had baked an abundance of delicious pumpkin pies, which, in addition to the sandwiches and other refreshments provided by the M. W. A., made a delicious supper which was served at a late hour.

Dancing, music and games furnished other entertainment for those present.

A Mob's Celebration.
The Royal Neighbors of America, of Tulsa, celebrated Halloween Monday evening at the home of Mrs. E. E. Wyatt, 207 North Cincinnati avenue. There were present about fifty lodge members and their friends, all in masquerade costume. Prizes offered for the tackiest make-up went to Mrs. Roy Williams and Mr. Walter Craig. Games, music and dancing were indulged in by all present until a late hour.

Miss Hope Henry and Miss Georgia Kelly gave an exceedingly pleasant Halloween party to a number of their friends Monday evening in the Kelly building on Tenth and South Main streets.

The guests were all attired in fancy Halloween costumes and innumerable Jack-o'-lanterns, fall flowers and leaves made the large room have an exceedingly festive appearance.

Mrs. Kane, who is past 70 years old in a witcher wigwag, told the fortunes of the young people as they gathered around her, and later in the evening, seated on the floor about her wigwag, refreshments were served.

Mrs. George Henry, Mrs. Tom Griffin, Mrs. Irvin Kelly, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Given were the chaperones of the evening.

Among the young people present were Misses Grace Haynes, Lucy Brummett, Estelle Farmer, Daisy Latimer, Dorothy Hudson, Helen Kuhns, Leone Kelly, Zonetta Kelly, Gladys Deshon, Gertrude Purdy, Eryne Purdy, Pauline Given, Frances Kelly, Miss Lourine Belle Bryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bryan, 732 South Denver avenue, celebrated her 10th birthday last evening with a delightful Halloween party.

The Bryan home was beautifully decorated with Jack-o'-lanterns, fall berries, flowers and leaves, and the games and refreshments for the evening were all in harmony with the Halloween season.

Little Miss Bryan was the recipient of many beautiful birthday remembrances.

Those who were present to help make merry the evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Calhoun, Dr. and Mrs. Murdoch, Mr. and Mrs. E. Colvin, Miss Calvert, Leola Murdoch, Thurman Murdoch, Lucile Wickizer, Wilma Wickizer, Margaret Black, Clyde Black, John Harrison, Woodruff Williams, Mary Clay, Williams, Bradford Williams, Anna Shaffers, Evelyn Myers, Otto Iverson, Fayeth Pickering, Fred Campbell, Harry Campbell, Hewitt Campbell, and Ralph Colvin.

SWEET SLUMBER BROUGHT BACK

Mrs. White, Unable to Sleep,
Tells How She Brought Back Natural Sleep.

Gastonia, N. C.—Mrs. Ellen White, of this city, says: "I suffered for several years, with womanly troubles. I could not rest at night.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and before I had finished one bottle, I could sleep well. It just acted like a charm.

Since taking Cardui, I have been in better health than for 10 years. It is the best medicine I ever used. It did me more good than the doctors.

I can certainly recommend Cardui, to all suffering women, for I have been greatly benefited by its use. It will build them up.

Cardui has been worth its weight in gold to me, for now I am well and hearty."

No matter how long-standing the trouble, Cardui will help. It is a tonic remedy. It is prepared for women, to bring relief from womanly ailments.

It helps sleeplessness, one of the most common symptoms of nervous breakdown. It helps build nerves and system.
Made from strictly vegetable ingredients, it has no ill effects on any organ of the body, but acts naturally, gently, and safely.

You can rely on Cardui. It will do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

It will help you. Try it.
